Purpose: The training of youth leaders is a vital ingredient needed to develop a high-performing Scouting Unit and foster the personal growth of its youth members. The Boy Scouts of America has developed a week-long training experience, the National Youth Leadership Training Conference (NYLT), that has proved valuable in the training of youth leaders. The conference will stress the skills of leadership that will make youth leaders more effective in performing their unit leadership positions. The conference follows a syllabus developed by the Boy Scouts of America National Council and is conducted by the Greater N.Y. Council with the approval of the Region and Area.

Perhaps more importantly youth will acquire life skills that will enable them to become successful leaders in any organization. This conference will provide a youth with the tools they need to develop leadership potential.

The skills learned will facilitate immensely the unit leader's leadership development and the youth directly benefit the units program.

Qualification: Any Boy Scout who participates in the conference must be at least a First Class Scout and 13 years old (but not yet 18). Venture Scouts and Sea Scouts must be at least 14 years old but not more than 18 years old at the start of the conference. Participants may only attend upon the approval of their Unit Leader. As the Conference is held at camp, it is important that the youth has camping, cooking, and hiking skills.

Conference Leadership: The Conference will be led by Course Director Efrain Alvarado and conducted by an excellent group of experienced youth and adult trainers.

Unit Leaders are encouraged to discuss this unique Youth Leadership Training opportunity with qualified unit members, their parents, and members of the unit committee. So we can effectively prepare for the conference, it is very important that all applications be submitted to the Greater N.Y. Councils by May 31, 2012.

What is the Conference : An exciting, action packed Leadership Development program designed to help Councils and their Units to provide youth members with leadership skills and experiences they can apply in their home units or in any situation demanding leadership of self and others.

What is the Purpose: Scouting recognizes that unit leaders have the responsibility of training their own youth leaders. The purpose of the National Youth Leadership Training Conference is not to assume the leader's role, but to help support it.

NYLT integrates the best of modern leadership theory with the traditional strengths of the Scouting experience. Through activities, presentations, challenges, discussions and audio - visual support, NYLT participants will be engaged in a unified approach to leadership that will give them the skills and confidence to lead well.

The six day conference centers around the concepts of what a leader must BE, what (s)he must KNOW, and what (s)he must DO.

The key elements are then taught with a clear focus on HOW TO. The skills come alive during the conference as the teams go on a Quest for the Meaning of Leadership.

Content is delivered in a group and team outdoor setting with an emphasis on immediate application of learning in a fun environment, Interconnecting concepts and work processes are introduced early, built upon, and aided by use of memory aids, which allows participants to quickly understand and employ the leadership skills.

Participants will: Have Fun, Make Friends, Learn how to work with Adult Leaders, Share ideas for improving their home units, Learn how to better perform in their own Leadership position and develop goals for further improving their leadership skills.

Unit leaders, Parents and family members are encouraged to attend the NYLT Conference Closing Assembly on Saturday, July 14 at 11:00 a.m.- noon at Camp Keowa, Ten Mile River Scout Camp.
