TMR Provisional Camp at Keowa

This camp is designed for the Scout who can never get enough summer camp. If a troop is only going for one week, or maybe not at all, then a Scout can join the fun at TMR Provisional Camp. Provisional camp will be a Scout's troop away from home, offering a full week of traditional summer camp adventure. Activities at provisional camp include archery and rifle shooting, swimming and boating, Scout skills, hiking, handicrafts, campfires, sports, nature study and so much more! The camp provides trained, qualified adult leadership for provisional camp.

Who: Registered Boy Scouts

When: Weeks 1 – 5 Camp Keowa

Week 6 Camp Aquehonga

Aquatics Camp

If you enjoy aquatic activities, then spend a week on or in the water at one of our premier camps. Activities include merit badges such as Swimming, Lifesaving, Rowing, Canoeing, Small Boat Sailing, Motor boating, Water skiing, and First Aid, as well as special awards such as BSA Lifeguard; Mile Swim, BSA; Snorkeling, BSA; Kayaking BSA; and Boardsailing BSA. Participants will also be trained in CPR, and take a special overnight Voyageur canoe trip, as well as a trip on the Delaware River. Participants will be able to learn important aquatic skills, while completing requirements for merit badges and aquatic special awards. Bring your suntan lotion and have a week of fun and adventure.
