Attendance at Shooting Sports Camp would allow you and your youth members to participate in all the camps programs (Merit Badge and Instructional) in the morning, between breakfast and lunch.

During the afternoon period, between lunch and dinner, you and your members would take part in an intensive Shooting Sports Program, including, 22cal. Rifle, 177cal. Air Rifle, 12ga. Shotgun, Muzzle Loading Rifle and traditional Archery on the ranges of Camp Keowa and others located around the T.M.R. reservation.

Venturers would have the opportunity to complete the requirements for the, Shooting Sports Outstanding Achievement Award.

You would be camping at the Specialty Campsite, complete with modern private toilet and shower facilities and a covered Pavilion equipped with electric service.

All your meals would be served, (family style) in the Keowa Dining Hall. (Where all dietary needs can be accommodated)

The evenings would be yours to enjoy all the open areas of camp; the Waterfront, the Low Cope Course, the High Cope Course, the Climbing and Repelling Tower, Fishing or just relaxing around the Camp Fire.

If this sounds good to you, please call the Camping Division at (212) 651-3073.

Camp Fee

$380.00, Standard Fee if paid after May 31, 2012

$350.00, if paid by May 31, 2012

Financial assistance is available

No youth should be denied the Summer Camp Experience because of financial need, see your District Executive or District Camping Committee for details
